

Keep up with eye exams and eyewear with Vision Insurance.

Flexible benefits that may save you money.

Eye doctor visits without a vision plan can be expensive. MetLife Vision Insurance with the Davis Vision® network helps you and eligible family members pay for eye exams, glasses, contact lenses and so much more.<sup>1</sup>

Through routine exams, eye doctors can potentially spot serious health problems like diabetes, high blood pressure, heart disease, certain cancers and other conditions.<sup>2</sup>

Potential savings with the Davis Vision Exclusive Collection<sup>3</sup> of frames

	Average retail cost <sup>4</sup>	Davis Vision member cost
Annual eye exam	$154	$10 (copay)
Exclusive Collection frames <sup>5</sup>	$180	$0
One-year breakage warranty	$30	Covered
Exam and eyewear total cost	$364	$10

For illustrative purposes only. Actual costs and benefits may vary based on plan design selected. Please see your certificate for details on benefits and exclusions.

Consider this scenario:

*We avoided going to the eye doctor due to the high cost. Thanks to vision insurance, we saved on eye exams and new eyewear for the whole family. Our child is doing better in school with glasses, and I love my contact lenses. This coverage is definitely worth it, and it helps us stay within our budget.**

1. Your actual savings from enrolling in a vision plan will depend on various factors, including plan premiums, number of visits to an eye care professional by your family per year, and the cost of services and materials received. Be sure to review the Schedule of Benefits for your plan's specific benefits and other important details.
